Soulful Christmas

A Christmas message from the Executive Director

It’s hard to believe that Christmas is almost here already—where did the year go!
Each year that passes seems to have its own character—there are always challenges, and maybe a low point here and there, but more often than not, they are liberally sprinkled with many highlights which bring joy and gladness.

As the holiday season approaches, it is important to take time to enjoy family, food, fun, but most of all it is a time to remember the real reason for the season: the celebration of the birth of Christ our Lord.

I would like to extend an invitation to all of you to come and socialize with friends and family at our Soulful Christmas events on December 3rd and 4th. Both days promise to be filled with long-lasting memorable activities. Our staff and volunteers have worked hard over the past several weeks to ensure you and your family will have a wonderful time. I would also like to thank our many sponsors for helping to make this two-day event possible.

In closing, I would like to wish all of you a very Merry Christmas and a most prosperous Happy New Year, from my family to yours. See you in the New Year!

VISIT THE

MICHIGAN STREET
AFRICAN AMERICAN HERITAGE CORRIDOR

The Michigan Street African American Heritage Corridor has been the heart of the African American community for more than 185 years; starting with the formation of the Michigan Street Baptist Church as the epicenter of the abolition movement in Buffalo. It has been Buffalo’s stage for desegregation of schools, Civil Rights acts, the Jazz Age, and more.

When you book a tour of the Michigan Street Corridor’s anchors, you get to experience the history of the Michigan Street Baptist Church, Nash House Museum, the Historic Colored Musicians Club, & WUFO Black Radio History Collective.
